

Back to Office Report

The Chief Executive Officer along with the team from Farm Machinery Corporation Limited(FMCL), Paro has visited three Regional Offices of Bajo, Samtenling and Khangma respectively with effect from 10th - 23rd October, 2016. The team also visited Norjinthang farm in Trashigang, Phuntshothang Agriculture Rehabilitation Project (PARP) in S/Jongkhar, Nichula farm in Lhamozingkha and Farm Machinery Service Centre in Phuntshothang and to Lhamozingkha under Dagana Dzongkhag.

The Regional tour was mainly spotlight on the compact signing between Regional Managers and Deputy General Manager, Farm Machinery Services in the presence of Chief Executive Officer. The Contact Signing with Contact Operators and signing Oath Allegiance by Regular Staffs and Contact operators were also conducted as a part of visit to the regional offices. Further, the visit was made to extent familiarization tour for newly joined staffs and to discuss issues and constraints at Regional level in taking forward of FMCL to a prolific Corporation.

Photo I- Compact Signing with Regional managers

Photo II: Signing Oath of Allegiance

photo III: Contact Signing with Contact operators

The Norjinthang farm presently being looked after by Trashigang Dratshang will be lease out to FMCL and inception meeting with venerable Lam Neten and monk representative was conducted during the visit. Accordingly, it was resolve that the FMCL shall start with land development and cultivation of Vegetable and other crops as an immediate action to begin with the project. The lease agreement between Trashigang Dratshang and FMCL shall sign in due course of time.

Photo IV - Meeting with Venerable Lam Neten & Bird eye view of Norjinthang farm

The team also visited the PARP and farm development sites of Phuntshothang and Nichula to study and monitor the progress of work being executed till date. The FMCL will soon take over the PARP site as per the Executive order received from the Ministry of Agriculture and Forests.

A) PARP- holds about 600 acres of land and has been managed by Project Director, PARP. The construction of office space, machinery shed and construction of irrigation channel has been seen as top most priority for the FMCL to instigate for the project.

Photo V- PARP Machinery Shed and land development area

B) Nichula farm has about 200 acres of land and the variety of vegetables and cereal seeds were cultivated till date.

Photo: VI- Cultivated Chilli, til, dal, maize and rice at Nichula Farm